Democrat Ángel Luis Vega declares Candidacy for Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts

It's Time for a New Vision in Texas!

KATY, TEXAS - On December 2, 2021, Ángel Luis Vega officially announced his Candidacy seeking the Democratic nomination for Texas Comptroller in the upcoming 2022 election.

"As Comptroller, I want to make sure that the decisions we make are for the best interest of all the people of Texas, not the special interest groups. I will make decisions based on data, not particular affiliations. Manage the state's accounts with efficiency & transparency. Serve our communities with integrity, compassion, commitment, and a sense of urgency for all our needs.

It is time to demonstrate that we can do better, that there are significant and innovative plans that we can get done. I firmly believe that there is a better tomorrow if we can come together as a community and achieve big things if we start looking for common ground. It's time for a new vision in Texas! I would like to personally invite you to be part of our vibrant movement and go through this journey together."

Vega's Priorities:

- Serve our communities with integrity, compassion, commitment, and a sense of urgency
- Manage the state's budget with efficiency & transparency
- Unite our communities
- Establish a vibrant economy and thriving jobs
- Make decisions based on data
- Boost Texans entrepreneurship and develop new business opportunities
- Support our rural areas
- Retirement security & protect pensions
- Our children's education & future
- Support our veterans & military families
- Modernize the Comptroller's Office
